University of Gdańsk

announces recruitment for

Interdisciplinary Doctoral Studies in Mathematical Modeling (IDSMM)

Academic year 2014/2015

Studies IDSMM, realised in their entirety in the English language, are a unique chance to:

- work on the topics where mathematics meets other sciences (like biology, physics, chemistry, etc),
- build own scientific contacts by visits to the conferences and researchers close to the selected topic,
- focus on the science - scholarship 3500 PLN/month for each participant studies.

The model of the studies is developed in the cooperation with Ghent University (Belgium) sharing its huge scientific experience in applied mathematics.
